Code of Conduct

For members and coaches.

All members and coaches must:

1. Follow all guidelines laid down by EUGC, the Sports Union, The University of Edinburgh, and Scottish Gymnastics.

2. Arrive on time for training, wherever possible, and help with both setting up equipment and tidying it away.

3. Consider the wellbeing and safety of other participants.

4. Promote the positive aspects of gymnastics.

5. Be fair, honest and considerate of all other participants and coaches.

6. Display consistently high standards of behaviour at all club training, socials and events.

7. Accept responsibility for their own performance and behaviour.

8. Not wear EUGC kit on a non-EUGC night out, or on any other occasion where they might bring the club into disrepute.

9. Not do anything which is likely to intimidate, offend, insult, humiliate or discriminate against any other person on the ground of gender, race, disability, age, religious or political belief, sexual orientation, social background, ethnic origin, language, marital or civil partnership status or pregnancy.

10. Look out for other members and coaches, and if they witness or become aware of a fellow member breaking the Club Code of Conduct, report the incident to the Club President, Secretary, or Treasurer.
